

Poem about Ramayana

King Dasharatha, the ruler of the ancient kingdom who was brave and full of wisdom

he wanted an heir that will end his despair

King asks Vasishta why he has no heir
As Vasishta tells him to do a prayer

He asked to get rid of Ravana the evil who was a strong like an eagle

Devas went to Lord Vishnu who promised that son of Dasharata will destroy Ravana

His three wives ate the kheer but one ate half of the kheer as the two wives shared their kheer

four kids where born from the Mama and the eldest one was called Rama

Rama was honest and best so the kings and the villagers were impressed

Rama married a woman named Sita who was so beautiful

The devil whispered in the wife's ear to banish Rama
So her son can be the king but not Rama

Rama vanished from his own home with Sita and his brother and never forgets his promise with no regret

Rama and his Brother wounded a Rakshasas princess who tried to seduce Rama.
she told Ravana, the ten-headed ruler the enemy of Rama

Ravana turned himself into a golden deer to get Sita's attention as Rama bravely searched for the golden deer for Sita

Sudden scream came out from Rama his brother drew a magical circle that will protect Sita

He hurried to Rama with his arrow and bow in a worried mood when a Brahman who was Ravana begged for some food

As Sita comes out of the magical circle Ravana grabbed her and went to Lanka, his kingdom

During the search of Sita
he met Hanuman the son of the Wind God

Hanuman found Sita in the prison so they tried to escape the prison

He was caught by Kavana so he set fire on Hanuman's tail

He leaped one house to another until he reached to his brother(friend)

He went in the battle field and revealed his power

Rama killed Ravana with a single arrow
and his body fell like a big barrow

He freed Sita from the demon and returned to his home, his dominion

